

Camelot Elementary Dress Code

Students in the Federal Way Public Schools are expected to dress in a manner that reflects pride and respect for themselves and their school, and is safe and appropriate for the wellbeing of all students. It is generally expected that student dress shall be clean and appropriate for the activity in which the student is engaged.

- Clothing presenting a reasonable expectation of a material and substantial disruption of the educational process, damage of school property, or a health or safety hazard is not permitted.
- Clothing displaying obscene or sexual words, pictures, messages, or innuendoes is not permitted.
- Clothing displaying drug and alcohol-related words, pictures, messages, or innuendoes is not permitted.
- Clothing which symbolizes gang membership or which displays gang-related words, symbols, messages, numbers, or pictures is not permitted.
- Clothing which symbolizes violence or which displays weapons or the use of weapons is not permitted.
- Hats and/or other headgear (including earmuffs and hoods) are not to be worn inside the school building. Religious head coverings are permitted.
- Shirts cover the belly and torso and must have sleeves or straps that are a minimum of two fingers width.
- Jewelry and other accessories that may present a safety hazard or danger to self or others (including wallet chains, dog chains, and spikes or studded accessories) are not permitted.
- Shirts or blouses with holes or pants that have holes or cuts above the mid-thigh are not permitted.
- Pants and shorts must be worn at the hips or above and must not expose undergarments.
- Shorts or skirts length must reach mid-thigh or longer.
- Pajamas or blankets are not permitted on campus.
- Shoes must be safe. Sandals are allowed but, must have a back strap (no flip flops). Shoes with wheels, music, video games or heels more than one inch are not permitted.
- See-through or sheer clothing that exposes skin that is otherwise required to be covered is not permitted.

Exceptions to the dress code may be made with administrator approval for spirit days, classroom celebrations, individual student special needs, and religious purposes.

Students whose manner of dress violates the school dress code shall be asked to make appropriate corrections and will receive a verbal warning. Students who fail to comply or who receive multiple warnings will be subject to disciplinary action parents will be notified.