School Mission Statement
Federal Way Open Doors’ mission is knowing every student by name, strength and need!

Our School Goals
Our school goals align with the district strategic plan:

Goal 2- Whole Child: Thriving, Confident, Responsible Individuals

Pride Points
• Restorative practices are utilized to support positive peer relationships and maximize time for teaching and learning
• Multiple community-based organizations on site that assist with meeting the needs of the whole child

Area of Focus
• High quality learning experiences that reduce the disproportionality in student outcomes and a scholar advisory committee that informs our school improvement plan

Goal 5- Persistence to Graduation: High School Graduation Through Successful Transitions

Pride Points
• Personalized learning plans (PLPs) support unique and individualized opportunities for students to prepare for career and college pursuits
• Personalized opportunities and learning plans allow unique pathways to graduation—giving scholars an opportunity to earn a diploma in a non-traditional setting

Area of Focus
• Develop system to improve and monitor attendance and also provide increased opportunities for formative assessment and feedback

Community Involvement
Scholars share their learning through project exhibitions where family and caring adults are welcomed into their learning environment.
