School Mission Statement

Lakota Middle School builds an exemplary learning community through meaningful relationships and relevant, engaging learning while utilizing effective communication and collaboration. We challenge each other to be better than we think we can be as caring and ethical citizens.

Our School Goals

Our school goals align with the district strategic plan:

Goal 2- Whole Child: Thriving, Confident, Responsible Individuals

Pride Points

- 100% of Scholars participated in SLCs in the 2018-19 school year
- Implementation of school-wide advisory lessons that support social emotional learning

Area of Focus

- Continuing to work towards 100% of scholars feeling safe and welcome at Lakota through advisory lessons, PBIS systems and scholar advisory input

Goal 4- Content-Area Competence: Mastery of All Subjects

Pride Points

- Schoolwide focus on rigorous reading and writing through Claim, Evidence, and Reasoning strategy
- Significant increase in the number of scholars on grade level in reading/language arts (+8%) as measured by the SBA

Area of Focus

- Build upon our success in ELA through our three year aspirational goals. By 2022, 80% of 8th grade scholars will be meeting or exceeding grade level standards in ELA

Community Involvement

- Classroom volunteers
- WatchDOGS
- PTSA
- School Garden
- Lakota Kings
- PBIS Partnerships
